🚀 45-Minute Team Challenge: The AI War Game for SMEs
⚡ Crisis Card

During your board pitch, one of the following crises suddenly arises.
Your team has 5 minutes to pivot and adjust your outputs.

🏛️ 1. Regulation Shock

The Infocomm Media Development Authority (IMDA) has just released stricter AI Explainability Guidelines. All pilot projects must show how AI decisions are made.

Board Prompt:

"How will you adapt your pilot plan to ensure compliance, transparency, and accountability without slowing down innovation?"

📉 2. Competitor Threat

Your largest regional competitor announces that they cut costs by 20% using AI automation. The story is trending on LinkedIn and your board is alarmed.

Board Prompt:

"How will you differentiate our AI strategy so we are not left behind — or seen as followers?"

✊ 3. Labor Resistance

The employees' union has released a statement threatening to strike if AI adoption is not handled responsibly. Morale is dropping fast.

Board Prompt:

"How will you reassure employees and maintain trust while still delivering AI productivity gains?"

💻 4. Cybersecurity Breach

A peer company in Singapore was hacked after exposing confidential data to an open AI system. The board fears reputational damage.

Board Prompt:

"How will you balance AI innovation with data security and risk controls?"

🌍 5. Geopolitical Shock

China has announced new subsidies for logistics firms using local AI systems, giving your Chinese competitors a pricing edge.

Board Prompt:

"How will you use AI to strengthen our regional competitiveness despite unequal playing fields?"
